Lake Toscana, Tampa Bay's first designated conservation community, has released 15 new home sites at the development, near Parrish in south Hillsborough County.

The development has 102 home sites in 512 acres, bordering the Little Manatee River and the Little Manatee Preserve. Every lot is either one or two acres with water or conservation-area views.

The development is six miles from Interstate 75, at 4225 Saffold Road. It's accessible via County Road 301 from I-75 in South Hillsborough County, 35 minutes from Sarasota.
